BURNING TIMES (click on the image of the witches)

SET UP:

Witch Doctor and Sex Witch are in their little decorated shack, lounging around reading books and watching reality tv. With a beauty spell bath on the boil, and money oil ready to be bottled, Dr Witch gets up from the couch and begins to bottle the money oil. Sex Witch whistles out the windows for the cats to return for their dinner.

The cats are playing in the forest and as usual gossiping about other people who live in the forest. The Wind Witch is behind them amongst the trees, stealing nuts and berries from the forest animal's homes. She hears the cats talking about the Noise Witch, saying she is too loud and too busy up in everyone's business. The Wind Witch grabs her berries, nuts, and runs back to shack to tell what she heard. The cats hear the whistle again and go running back to the farmhouse.

The cats make so much noise that they wake The Owl who guards the door. Sex Witch feeds the cats and hands them all treats as they meow, meow, meow, (sound) constantly out of happiness. The Owl sees the sky turning dark too fast and thinks something is wrong. She can't see the planets or the stars, only dark clouds.

The Noise Witch, was playing with her instruments and kissing her dogs, becomes so far beyond angry (screaming/sound) that those cats dare speak her name. The Wizard is minding his own business as he continues to create his art from dirt. The Wind Witch keeps yapping away making the dog suckers thirsty for those cats. The dogs are locked up on their extended chains. He asks her to calm down as the rain will turn the dirt to mud. The Noise Witch starts her thumping and bumping while the Wind Witch blows the vibrations further than expected. The Wizard is upset that his dirt is flying away. The Wizard is angry at everyone. He wants to be left alone to make his dirt art and spells. As the weather worsens, he uses the mud to build a wall to keep himself locked away.

Noise & Wind vs Dr & Sex

1. Dr Witch and Sex Witch lock up their house, The owl comes insides and gets out her star glazing telescope. She can see lightning / frequencies brewing in the clouds, she asks the cats about what happened out there in the forest. They have no idea. The Dr. questions them further until they realize it was The Wind Witch who was listening in on their gossiping conversation. This angers the Witch Doctor and immediately she pulls fur from the cats to start a spell that will strengthen their sound barrier.

2. The Noise Witch screams into her microphone and plays her guitar loud. The Wind Witch dances around with the dogs barking.
3. Sex Witch is a little afraid, not wanting to cause any trouble, so she dresses up and gets ready to seek out men for fun.
4. The cats sharpened their nails ready for a fight
5. The sound travels across the forest, the animals hide, some eat their bag of nuts like they are watching a movie.
6. The Wind Witch offers to steal the potions from the WD for beauty to give to the Noise Witch. I want her face. I want what she has, I want to steal it.
- 7.
8. The weather is chaotic, WD hair is on point held down by hairspray and her beauty spell. The animals in the kingdom all find her to be beautiful.
9. Witch Doctor seeks out the wisdom from her Elephant friend, guided by the Owl to ensure safety. WD wants SD to come along but realizes she has left for a date over the hill to greener pastures.
10. Noise Witch seeks out her friend the Sherk to ask for assistance. He explains that everyone is in pain, and it is not just about her. That she has no right to control what others say of her.

THE ENDING

The elephant sits in the jungle river having fun spraying water onto his little family. Gives assistance to WD who this time brings SD with her. SD asks for a love spell and recommends they refocus their fighting to loving ppl in their life and attracting other beautiful people.

Sherk is working on building an organic community, with people from dark backgrounds who want to change their lives and live in a mindset of being able to separate their egos from their soul purpose.

All the witches come to an end in their fights and go their own ways. The Wind Witch finds new friends, and WD & SW stay together, and the cats got pregnant, so they shifted their focus. The NW moved in with Sherk to start her new life as a non ego psycho. The wizard continues to create his art and live his life. The SW visits the Elephant more often and prays and the WD continues in her voodoo. The cats move next door.

The owl and her owlet continue to read the stars and, in the distance, can hear something unusual brewing.... oh nooooo!!! The end...
